MONEY ACTIVE. The money market continued acuve, and the best class of borrowers had to pay seven per cent even upon pledge of government securities. The stock brokers generally paid seven gold, and some of the smaller houses had to allow small commissions for the carrying of stocks. The dearest rate this way was not over 16 per cent, but 1-32 and 1-16 were quite common.

Commercial paper has no regular quotation outside of bank, where there is a full line of applications at the legal rate. FOREIGN EXCHANGE LOWER.

The foreign exchange market was weak, owing to the competition of large amounts of bilis drawn against the shipment of government bonds, but the decline from this influence would not have been so marked had not the stock brokers sold a quantity of prime bills borrowed against the piedge of stock collaterals. The nominal rates were lowered only one-eighth per cent, but sales on the street were made at ¼ a ¾ per cent below flu-ures at the desk. The following were the quotations at the close :-- Sterling, sixty days, com-mercial, 107% a 108; good to prime bankers', 108% a 108%; short sight, 100% a 109%; Paris, sixty days, 5.40 a 5.35%; short sight, 5.30 a 5.28%; Antwerp, 5.31% a 5.25; Switzerland, 5.28% a 5.23%; Hamburg, 25% a 35%; Amsterdam, 40% a 40%; Frankfort, 40% a 41%; Bremen, 77% a 78%; Prussian thalers, 71% B 72

GOLD LOWER-114 A 11314. The gold market itterally broke down under heavy sales during most of the day by the foreign bankers, who were at the same time buying government bonds for export to the European market, where, for some reason not as yet explained by cable, our securities underwent a sudden improvement of % a 1 per cent, as compared with prices toward the close of last week. A recent writer in the London News has been at considerable pains to explain the indifference of the public to and the ictuargy of the market for British consols or three per cents, which he attributes to the less claunish spirit of English capital nowadays and its willingness to invest in securities which are not exclusively the stock of the "light httle island." A slow transfer of the moneys of old estates from consols to debentures has been assisted even by the judges of the Probate Court. The cost of hving has been so much enhanced that the three per cents no longer furnish a competent income to many who have no other and seek no other means or gesting money. Hence necessity has driven them to buy securities paying higher rates of interest. We refer to this article of the News as suggesting the reason why our securities have been so firm throughout the perturbations of the London money market during the past six weeks. These sales of gold occasioned a decline from 114 to 113%, at which latter point there was no further profit in shipments and the market became steady, and eventually reacted a fraction. The course of the price of gold during the day is shown in th

THE TREASURY BALANCES.

The following were the Treasury balances at the close of business to-day:-Currency, $7,000,000; coin, $94,000,000. Of the coin palance the sum of $16,000,000 represents outstanding coin certificates. STOCKS PEVERISH AND LOWER.

The stock market opened with a pressure to sell at the advanced figures of Saturday evening, and before the board had fully convened a large decline had taken place. As the second board was getting together there was some disposition to accept a reaction, and prices did improve, but without becoming strong the market turned dull. Finally a feeling of disappointment at the continued activity of mone led to a renewal of sales, and the market broke down again, the closing prices being generally the lowest of the day. It seems that the banks are taxed to their utmost to meet the demand for money required for remittance to Chicago. The banks there intend resuming next Wednesday, and, while the suggestion is made that they should temporarily make their clearances with bills on New York, they fing themselves under the necessity of drawing ou New York for currency to supply the wanis of a popular vehicle of business. Again, reign insurance companies are seiling their drafts on London and shipping currency. Although the losses are really paid from London capital the money is just now taken from the limited supply of this city. Moreover, there are numerous speculative capitalists going to Chicago to buy for "cash" such bargains as they may find in real estate and business sizes. Under these circumstances the banks are giving the cold shoulder to borrowers on stocks, and the citque holders of the latter have been ransacking Exchange place to-day for loans of sterling bills, which they have thrown on the market for gold, and eventually for the currency to replace the loans withdrawn by the banks. These facts have again disheartened those who deemed the worst gone by and believed the market capable of a smart rally.

TYION OF POLANDERS.

The Humored Polish Conspiracy to Insult the Grand Duke Alexis-Indignant Penint

The society known by the above name held a meeting at the Casino, in Houston street, on Sunday last, Dr. Markewicz presiding, and Julian Drozdonsky secretary. Considerable indignation has been felt by prominent Polanders in this city, in consequence of the malevolent interpretation certain journals have put upon the object of the meeting. A HERALD reporter upon the object of the meeting. A Herald reporter yesterday visited several prominent Polanders in this city to ascertain the true state of affairs, and all those with whom he conversed were unanimous in stating that the object of the society was for purely charitable purposes, the principal one being to relieve poor emigrant Polanders on their arrival atthis port. Arrangements were also made at the meeting on Sunday for the grand Polish fair, which is to be held in this city on the 20th of November next the proceeds of which are to be devoted in furtherance of the society.

The alleged reasons for the meeting on Sunday by the journals referred to were that prominent Polanders in the city thought it necessary to confer together with a view to restrain some of their countrymen from insuling the Grand Duke Alexis during his stay in this city. The Hebratic proprier was informed that prominent Polanders in this city had no reason whatever to anticipate any trouble from any acts of their countrymen. Polanders in this city were all united in regard to their own country, but that unity so far from begetting such an unseemly display of imagined patriotism prevented the existence of feelings that would prompt to such conduct. In fact, the Polanders in this city had not an unkind thought toward the orand Duke and were too mainly to insult a yenth who could not possibly be held responsible for the fate of Poland. They felt certain that the young Russian Prince would have a pleasant tour in America, and, so far as they were concurred, bothing should occur to mar American hospitality to the royal visitor, though feeling perfectly indifferent ab at the Czar and his family.

These semiments prevailed among the Polanders with whom the reporter conversed, and he was assured were left by all cilizens of Polish birth now in New York, so that the rumoted conspiracy against the Grand Duke Alexis seems to have no foundation and may be dismissed as an imaginary evil.
